

Please do not lift the cross-ownership ban on media ownership. I am concerned that much of the media in the United States already reports on events in similar fashions, probably because they subscribe to the same news distribution services. Lifting the cross-ownership ban to allow single companies to own multiple outlets in a limited area will only increase the problem. I find it useful to have information from a number of sources available to me.